

Teach For Hong Kong is a non-profit organisation with a mission to enlist outstanding university graduates with diversified talents to serve underprivileged students through a one-year teaching Fellowship Program.

- The need: Aims to address two critical social issues in Hong Kong – inequity in education and difficulty in attracting talent for education
- USP: Youth development, education, nurture leadership and strong execution capability
- Step change: To double the annual class size of fellows and number of school partnerships by 2021
- SIP capacity building: Brand management, board restructuring, fellows recruitment and career guidance
- Social impact: Served over 20,000 students in Hong Kong's public schools with a strengthening fellowship alumni group
- Sustainability: Partner schools responsible for stipend